“With God all things are possible”

December 2020

Dear BSCMF Member,

"...asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you spiritual wisdom and insight so that you might grow in your knowledge of God. I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope He has given to those He called--His holy people who are His rich and glorious inheritance."

- Ephesians 1:17-18

The Bible Dictionary definition of the word, "revelation" means: "The act of disclosing or discovering to others what was before unknown to them; appropriately, the disclosure or communication of truth to men by God himself, or by his authorized agents, the prophets and apostles." Why is a divine revelation important? Because a revelation from God is always the beginning of the miraculous in your life and ministry. This month, I want to give you a revelation of just how important Divine Revelation is to your life; and that pursuing intimacy with God will bring revelation that will open the door to the impossible. Understand, a revelation from God will keep Hell out of your life and ministry. Why is that? Because Satan is spiritually dead – he has no understanding of God's Word or the things of God. Satan and the Kingdom of Darkness are reactionary – all that they can do is react to what the Church does. You as a Christian leader are spiritually alive and that means you have a direct connect to God's spiritual life. Through your intimacy with God, divine revelation comes to you that will always keep you one step ahead of Satan and his plans: God will show you things to come, and he will warn you ahead of time of Satan's plans to get you off track. Always remember that God wants to reveal to you the hidden things that he keeps securely away from Satan. It states in Deuteronomy 29:29, "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law." God's Word (or law) is God's Will, so therefore, God knows all things – the beginning from the end. We who have received Jesus as our Lord and Savior, are God's children. As God's children, it is God's desire for us to know the secret things, so He reveals them to us. The purpose is so we can walk out God's perfect plan for our lives and ministry, as well as God's overall plan for the Body of Christ in these Last Days!

You need to understand that you will never receive divine revelation if you walk carnally and in the 'natural'; it's only when we walk in the Spirit and maintain an intimate relationship with the Father do we receive divine revelation. I can't over-emphasize how regularly receiving revelation from God is the key for you to go to the next Kingdom level – personally and in ministry: It is your assured path to victory in life – so make sure you press in every day to get a revelation from God!

May God bless you richly,

Dr. Will Pantin
